

"There's something awesomely raw about it, as if it's been around since the beginning of time but has just come into the light."

BIO

The next evolutionary phase of dark Irish music, reshaping tradition through a more experimental form. Half parts Dublin, half part Co. Clare, their sound is driven by narrative songwriting that blends trad and folk instrumentation with hard rock, grunge, and electronic textures. Drawing thematic influence from psychology and philosophy, their music feels both ancient and confrontationally new. Their debut single reached the No. 1 spot on a compilation curated by Lankum for Uncut magazine and was included in Hot Press's Ones to Watch in 2024. Their debut album is set for release this year, with label negotiations currently ongoing.
